

Final Weekend: Make It a Buchan Adventure!

Hi food lovers,

We've reached the final weekend of Aberdeenshire Restaurant Week 2025 — and what better place to round it off than the beautiful Buchan coast? Think sea air, harbourside walks, and fresh local flavours from Peterhead to Portsoy.

Coastal Flavours: Spotlight on Buchan

Sea views, seafood, and a warm welcome — Buchan is full of flavour and charm. From bustling fishing towns to quiet coastal cafés, this area captures the very best of Aberdeenshire's coastal cooking.

Where to try:

- Portsoy Ice Cream, Portsoy → Famous for inventive scoops and sundaes — treat yourself to a cone by the harbour.
- Mrs Maitland's, Fraserburgh → A homely café serving hearty meals and home bakes made with care.
- The Pennan Inn, Pennan → Dine with a view — classic dishes in one of Scotland's most picturesque coastal villages.
- Davron Hotel, Rosehearty → Friendly service and generous portions in a traditional coastal setting.
- Asha's Indian Aroma, Peterhead → Vibrant, flavour-packed Indian cuisine with a modern twist.
- North Bar & Restaurant, Peterhead → Stylish dining and creative cocktails in the heart of town.
- Harbour Dunes Café, Cruden Bay → Laid-back café vibes with fresh bakes and seaside views.
- Saplinbrae Hotel & Lodges, Mintlaw → Country elegance meets local ingredients — a Buchan gem.
- The Seaview Hotel, Boddam → A true coastal classic serving fresh seafood and hearty local fare.
- The Knowes Hotel, Macduff → Beautiful views over the Moray Firth and a menu that celebrates the sea.

Tip: Pair your meal with a blustery beach walk or a sunset stop at one of Buchan's harbours — it's the perfect finish to your Restaurant Week adventure.
